The ball has opened in Ohio. Hoadley led off on the Democratic side and Secretary Sherman on the Republican. The country will watch the result of the campaign with intense interest. Although it is denied, the fact still remains that the temperance question will control the fight and determine the result.

Tom Hughes, of the Albuquerque Journal, late postmaster of that city, seems to be a persecuted man. He was arrested charged with shortage of government funds, but on examination was discharged. He was then rearrested by some nincompoop called a postoffice inspector, and is again free. Tom Hughes is not a man to do a dishonest act, and those who persecute him only injure themselves.
